Horse Soldier Bourbon

VALUE: Worth the price of admission

Much of our brotherhood was forged in fire during the first days after the 9/11 attacks. Immediately following this affront on our nation, the USA responded with a daring insertion of small teams of Green Berets into northern Afghanistan. The Northern Alliance successfully overthrew Mazar-i-Sharif, a Taliban stronghold, with the support of these brave men. This region's inhospitable mountainous terrain made the efforts and enemy engagements on wild Afghan horses a necessity for one Special Operations team (ODA595). Nicknamed the "Horse Soldiers," all these brave men are honored today by America's Response Monument overlooking "Ground Zero" in New York City.

Our team has been involved in every conflict since the Vietnam War. We make history and continue to live legendary lives by instilling family values, adventurous spirits, and pride into Horse Soldier Bourbon Whiskey. Our next mission is to serve Horse Soldier Bourbon, our legacy in a bottle.

12 PERSON

Dinner with Dean Kamen

VALUE: PRICELESS

Enjoy an evening of great food, company, and conversation for 12 guests with dinner at Dean Kamen's! Dean Kamen is an American inventor, entrepreneur, and science advocate. There could be no better experience than to dine with Dean at his home, that has been described by many as an industrial museum, located in Bedford, New Hampshire. Enjoy the spectacular view at his hilltop home, and take a tour of his house, including his collection of antique engines, gadgets, and gizmos.

Don't miss the chance to chat with Dean Kamen, and who holds over 1000 patents, is an entrepreneur, inventor of the Segway and the iBot, and founder of FIRST with Woodie Flowers.

"My house is kind of a cross between a technology museum of old stuff and Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory." -Dean Kamen
